A Note From The Director

"Tomorrow there'll be sun"

Annie first opened on Broadway in 1977 and played for six years, which equates to 2,377 performances! In addition, it won seven Tony Awards®, including Best Musical. The musical is based on the very long running comic strip Lil' Orphan Annie, which first appeared in 1924 and ran pretty much forever!

This is a very unusual show in that historical fact and comic strip fiction merge together in one story. FDR, all of his Cabinet, and Supreme Court Justice Brandeis, are all historical characters of the day. Our country being in the worst depression it had ever known and huge numbers of people finding themselves homeless was truly the State of the Union at that time.

Annie is quite a history lesson. I found it ironic (among other things) that while we were discussing the circumstances in the musical, we found our country dealing with many of the same issues. History repeats itself, or as my dad always said, "Everything cycles." My dad was almost always right.

But Annie is more than a history lesson. It is a love story. An orphan finds the love of a parent she has always dreamed of, and a tough-as-nails billionaire discovers what has been missing in his life. Love can transform even the toughest nail.

Annie herself is the voice of optimism. Even in the most wretched of circumstances, Annie remains positive about the future; a good reminder for us all. The sun will come out tomorrow!

Here we are with two casts of 60+ each. I love how each cast—even while given the same blocking and choreography—develops its own personality. They become "similarly different!" They have worked hard and stretched to new personal heights. Beautiful people all of them.

Another point of irony: The first time I did Annie was in 1989. The teenage girl who then played Star-to-Be (and several other roles in that production) is now the producer of this production. "Everything cycles." See, Dad was right!

Thank you to the cast, staff, crew, designers, producers, and the parents. You are truly amazing. Once again I must say, "Musical Theater is the greatest team sport on the planet." I am always grateful to be playing on your team.

Thank you for being here and hope you enjoy the show.

Love and Light,

~Debbie Wilson

Debbie Wilson DIRECTOR/CHOREOGRAPHER

One of the founders of EDMT, Debbie has been the artistic director for eighteen years, and has led EDMT to become one of the premier musical theatre companies for youth in the Western United States. She has further helped performers obtain crucial skills by founding EDMT's Performing Arts Institute in 2003.

While musical theater is Debbie's first love, she has wide-ranging experience including large-scale choreography for events ranging from the Olympics and Superbowl to the World Cup, Pro Bowl, and San Francisco Black and White Balls.

In theater, she has performed in, directed and/or choreographed hundreds of productions including: 42nd Street, Pippin, Oklahoma!, Thoroughly Modern Millie, Peter Pan, Seven Brides for Seven Brothers, West Side Story, Chicago, Follies, Les Misérables, A Chorus Line, Hairspray, and Anything Goes with Chita Rivera.

Debbie is the recipient of sixteen regional theatre awards for choreography, direction, and performance. She has been honored by the Interfaith Bureau of Sacramento and the California Assembly for her work with young people.

Her students have gone on to perform on Broadway, in national tours, in international concert tap companies, modern dance companies, on cruise ships, and in TV and film.

Debbie taught for American Musical Theater of San Jose and was dance chairperson for the professional training and summer youth programs for twenty years. She also headed the dance department at Lincoln High Performing Arts Magnet. She has taught for many prestigious youth organizations and has been recognized repeatedly for her excellence and contributions to youth.

Debbie is proud to be a founder of El Dorado Musical Theatre and its artistic director. She lives in El Dorado Hills with her daughter Anjie Rose and her son Zachary.

Justin Harvey VOCAL DIRECTOR

This is Justin's second time taking on the role of vocal director. Last summer he enjoyed working with the cast of SpyQuest, and this summer, it has been his pleasure to focus on Annie. He has also contributed as the assistant vocal director of High Voltage. While his first love has been performing on stage, it has been fascinating to be part of the process "behind the scenes."

Justin has been with EDMT for nine years and he is very excited to be a part of this wonderful musical theater family. In those nine years, he has performed in more than 20 shows and has played many roles. Some of his favorite roles include Barnaby Tucker/Hello, Dolly!, Cowardly Lion/The Wizard of OZ, Pinocchio/Shrek The Musical, and Cogsworth/Disney's Beauty and the Beast. Musical theater will always be a part of his life in some way.

Staff Biographies

Karen McConnell COSTUME DESIGNER

Karen has been a part of the El Dorado Musical Theatre's team since 2006. She was involved on a volunteer basis for many years, working as a stagehand, sewing, costuming for High Voltage and working as assistant costumer on many productions including Cats, Shrek The Musical, and The Wizard of OZ. She took on the role of costume designer in 2016 with EDMT's Disney's Alice in Wonderland JR. Since that time she has created costumes for many shows including 42nd Street, Bye Bye Birdie, Disney's Beauty and the Beast, and Peter Pan. She loves to add glitter and sparkle and her signature tiny details called 'Lobby Candy' that can only be seen when you meet the actors close up.

Karen owned the award-winning children's boutique, Starlight Starbright, for 14 years and just recently retired. She studied voice at the University of Michigan and the University of Arizona and is a classically trained soprano. She performs with the Sacramento Choral Society and Orchestra throughout the year and has recently returned from touring with the group in Europe performing Mozart's "Requiem."

Karen has been married for over 32 years, is mother to two amazing women, mother-in-law to an outstanding U.S. Naval Nuclear Engineer, and 'Mimi' to two gloriously giggly granddaughters.

A message from the CEO

It is impressive how far EDMT has come since Erica and I arrived on the scene 16 years ago. Back then, EDMT was like many of our very young performers when they first walk in the door. It had big dreams. It had lots of potential, but, it also had a lot of improving to do.

Today, EDMT is like many of our best performers, polished, skilled, confident, and ready to take on the world. It has been a fantastic journey filled with magical moments, thunderous ovations, along with moments that put tears in our eyes and filled our hearts with pride.

Along the way, there have been many beautiful and astonishing people who rolled up their sleeves to help. EDMT's development has indeed been a complete team effort.

Thank you to everyone who has been part of making this magical organization thrive. I am pleased to report that the organization is vibrant, and the future is bright.

Erica and I are delighted to have been part of creating this organization. It is because things are so strong that we feel it is time for us to step away.

Does this mean we are retiring to spend time at the beach? Hardly! We will be focusing more than ever on our marketing clients. There are new goals to achieve.

It has been a pleasure and an honor to be a core part of helping EDMT become such an exceptional organization. We know there are many standing ovations ahead.

Warm Regards,

~Rick and Erica Wilson

“The greatest leverage point you have for growing your business is to enhance your selling message.” — Richard Wilson

Have you been disappointed with the results your previous marketing has generated? The problem may not have been with the look, the media, or your product. The problem may have been your selling message.

Research shows that getting the right selling appeal can produce a 19x increase in the number of responses over other less effective appeals. That’s the difference between 10 people or 190 people buying your product or service.

These wildly different results are achieved with the same investment of dollars. The difference is having the right message and delivering it in an effective way.

Simply put, that’s what we do for clients located throughout the United States. We help them get more clients, more sales, more often.

Are you ready to start getting great results from your marketing? Are you ready for sales messaging that really works? Call us.

Kula, age 3

Kula, a labradoodle, is thrilled to make her stage debut as Sandy in the Roxy cast! In her spare time, Kula enjoys swimming, long walks, naps, and posing for her own Instagram page @kula_golden_labradoodle. Kula was trained at The Local Bark, and really digs returning to play with her fur-friends for a staycation.

Jake, age 11

Jake, a labradoodle, is so excited to reprise his role as Sandy in the Times Square cast! He was last seen on the stage in EDMT's Annie back in 2008, at only 9 months of age. His love of children has continued, so he couldn't think of anything he'd rather be doing. In his free time, Jake loves a good game of chase!

GYPSY SASH HONOREES

EDMT's Gypsy Sash was inaugurated in 2013 for the Rising Stars production of Bye Bye Birdie. It is modeled after Broadway's Gypsy Robe tradition and gives recognition to the heroes — the singers and dancers of the ensemble — who have given their passion, focus, and dedication to make the show the best it can possibly be.

The Sash is presented on opening night before the curtain goes up. It's an exciting moment, and we are happy to share the names of those who have been awarded this honor.
