A Note From The Director

"You must find it in your heart, Neverland..."

Peter Pan is universal and speaks to the child within all of us.

Sometimes we need to be reminded to let that child come out and play!

The notion of a boy who would never grow up was introduced in J.M. Barrie's book, Peter Pan, which was published in 1902. The story was based on Barrie's older brother, who had died in an ice-skating accident the day before turning fourteen, and thus always remained a boy in his mother's mind.

In 1953, Disney released Peter Pan as its fourteenth film in the Walt Disney Animated Classics series, and the world was introduced to Peter, Hook, Wendy, John, Michael, Tinkerbell, Smee, Tiger Lily, and all the rest.

The original Broadway production opened in 1954 starring Mary Martin as Peter with Cyril Ritchard as Captain Hook. Both earned Tony Awards® for their performances. The show has also enjoyed several revivals onstage. The first was with Sandy Duncan in 1979, then Cathy Rigby in the 1990's. Mary Martin was forty years old when the show opened on Broadway. Cathy Rigby was sixty years old when she finished her last tour as Peter Pan in 2013, both ladies taking the, "I won't grow up!" message to new heights.

This is the third time that EDMT has done Peter Pan. The first time was in 2006, and the second was in 2013. There are nineteen current cast members who were also on the 2013 trip to Neverland. We have one cast member who is taking his third trip to Neverland. He was Michael in '06, Mr. Smee in '13, and is now Hook in 2018. Sometimes they do grow up!

Our creative staff is a truly remarkable group of people! Thank you to all for your insight, expertise, and commitment to what we do. You are so willing to think outside the box, that there is no box. You are exceptional, and I continue to be so very grateful for all of you.

Thank you all for being here. Hope you enjoy your trip to Neverland.

Staff Biographies

Debbie Wilson DIRECTOR

One of the founders of EDMT, Debbie has been the Artistic Director for eighteen years, and has led EDMT to become one of the premier musical theatre companies for youth in the Western United States. She has further helped performers obtain crucial skills by founding EDMT's Performing Arts Institute in 2003.

While musical theater is Debbie's first love, she has wide-ranging experience including large-scale choreography for events ranging from the Olympics and Superbowl to the World Cup, Pro Bowl, and San Francisco Black and White Balls.

In theater, she has performed in, directed and/or choreographed hundreds of productions including: 42nd Street, Pippin, Oklahoma!, Thoroughly Modern Millie, Peter Pan, Seven Brides for Seven Brothers, West Side Story, Chicago, Follies, Les Misérables, A Chorus Line, Hairspray, and Anything Goes with Chita Rivera.

Debbie is the recipient of sixteen regional theatre awards for choreography, direction, and performance. She has been honored by the Interfaith Bureau of Sacramento and the California Assembly for her work with young people.

Her students have gone on to perform on Broadway, in national tours, in international concert tap companies, modern dance companies, on cruise ships, and in TV and film.

Debbie taught for American Musical Theater of San Jose and was dance chairperson for the professional training and summer youth programs for twenty years. She also headed the dance department at Lincoln High Performing Arts Magnet. She has taught for many prestigious youth organizations and has been recognized repeatedly for her excellence and contributions to youth.

Debbie is proud to be a founder of El Dorado Musical Theatre and its artistic director. She lives in El Dorado Hills with her daughter Anjie Rose and her son Zachary.

Anjie Rose Wilson CHOREOGRAPHER

Anjie went to her first EDMT rehearsal the day after she turned six and this year marks her 17th year with EDMT. Dedicated to dance, Anjie Rose Wilson has studied jazz, tap, ballet, hip-hop, and lyrical styles for over sixteen years.

She has been on staff for EDMT's training shows for nine years; starting as the assistant choreographer, and later becoming the programs's primary choreographer. Anjie has been apprenticing for years as the assistant choreographer and associate choreographer for almost twenty EDMT Main Stage, Rising Star, and Encore productions as well as for High Voltage. This is Anjie's third time working on an EDMT production of Peter Pan. She was seen as Lost Boy Curley in 2006, Tiger Lily in 2013, and is thrilled to now be cast as the choreographer in 2018. Peter Pan marks the fourth EDMT Main Stage production she has choreographed.

Anjie has been as instructor for EDMT's Performing Arts Institute since 2012 and she teaches a range of classes starting with four- to six-year-olds through the older teens. Her classes challenge even the more seasoned performers and the fittest young dancers. Some might refer to her classes as "dance boot camp." She has gone to New York City to participate in the audition-only Rockette Summer Intensive for four years. Starting from its inception, Anjie spent eight years as a member of El Dorado Musical Theatre's Tour Group, High Voltage.

Anjie has been in 50 EDMT productions in roles such as Dolly Levi/Hello, Dolly!, Morticia Addams/The Addams Family, Sharpay Evans/Disney's High School Musical, and Mrs. Meers/Thoroughly Modern Millie.

Jennifer Wittmayer VOCAL DIRECTOR

Jennifer Wittmayer has been teaching children's musical theatre in the Sacramento region and Bay Area since 1998 and is thrilled to once again work with the talented young people of EDMT! She holds a BA in Music from Santa Clara University and a Masters in Music from the San Francisco Conservatory of Music. Jennifer has served as vocal director for Children's Musical Theatre of San Jose and has directed musical theater programs for Fair Oaks and Elk Grove Park Districts.

Jennifer is celebrating her eleventh season with EDMT and has served as vocal director for over 30 shows, including: Thoroughly Modern Millie, Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, Les Misérables, Crazy for You, Cats, Curtains, Legally Blonde, and Singin' in the Rain. Jennifer is the vocal director for EDMT's touring company, High Voltage, and conducts private vocal instruction.

Karen McConnell COSTUME DESIGNER

Karen has been a part of the El Dorado Musical Theatre's team since 2006. She was involved on a volunteer basis for many years, working as a stagehand, sewing, costuming for High Voltage and working as assistant costumer on many productions including Cats, Shrek The Musical, and The Wizard of OZ. She took on the role of costume designer in 2016 with EDMT's Disney's Alice in Wonderland JR. Since that time she has created costumes for shows including 42nd Street, Bye Bye Birdie and Disney's Beauty and the Beast. She loves to add glitter and sparkle and her signature tiny details called 'Lobby Candy' that can only be seen when you meet the actors close up.

Karen owned the award-winning children's boutique, Starlight Starbright, for 14 years and just recently retired. She studied voice at the University of Michigan and the University of Arizona and is a classically trained soprano. She performs with the Sacramento Choral Society and Orchestra throughout the year and will tour with SCSO in Europe this summer performing Mozart's Requiem.

Karen has been married for over 32 years, is mother to two amazing women, mother-in-law to an outstanding U.S. Naval Nuclear Engineer, and 'Mimi' to two gloriously giggly granddaughters.

Lyrics By CAROLYN LEIGH • Music By MORRIS (MOOSE) CHARLAP

Additional Lyrics By BETTY COMDEN and ADOLPH GREEN

Originally directed, choreographed and adapted By JEROME ROBBINS

In 1929 Sir J.M. Barrie bequeathed Peter Pan to which has benefited thousands of children since then. The producers are proud and happy that everyone who has bought a ticket for today’s performance of Peter Pan is helping towards making the hospital the incredible center of hope it is today.
