DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE:

Welcome to the Falcon's Eye world of Macbeth. We often say that theatre is a reflection of life, that it mirrors what it is to be human. We say that we see ourselves in the world onstage. What comes of reflection, when we look into our own eyes? A superficial and fleeting moment of vanity. A moment where we can see into our minds the truth about ourselves. Imagine looking into the mirror and seeing only the darkest part of your soul and beyond only madness. Our theme in this presentation reflects the descent into madness of Macbeth and his Lady.
