DIRECTOR'S NOTE:

This is our love letter. This letter is not to you, dear audience. Not for you at home nor to you souls here “in the room” with us. Not a letter, really. This is our love composition. We have composed it to theatre itself. After over a year away, we wanted—no, needed to completely “be here” in our magnificent theatre. To do so, we took the quintessential English language play, did a little trim and tweak here and there, and then gloriously adorned every inch of the Harris Center with it! This is a celebration of all things theatrical. Thank you for taking part in this special experience.
