MURDER

October 18—November 3, 2019

This is sure to be the funniest murder mystery you have ever seen! The Author has retreated to an old mansion to write his novel. A weird electrical storm brings to life all the typical characters where they take over the story. Their comedic twists and turns, and, of course, the mandatory surprise ending, bring you an entertaining afternoon or evening of theater.

February 21— March 8, 2020

Little Women delivers a show filled with laughter, tears and a lifting of the spirit. The powerful score soars with the sounds of a young America finding its voice. Based on Louisa May Alcott's life, it weaves the story of herself, her family and sisters, and their experience growing up in Civil War America, personal discovery, heartache and hope – the sounds of a young America.

Coming of Age

April 3-April 19, 2020

We celebrate Neil Simon, who died in 2018. It's a portrait of the writer as a young teen in 1937, living with his family in a crowded, lower middle-class Brooklyn walk-up. Dreaming of baseball and girls, Eugene must cope with his formidable mother, overworked father, and his worldly older brother. Throw in his widowed Aunt, her young (but rapidly maturing) daughters, and you have a recipe for family hilarity.

July 17-August 2, 2020

Based on the immortal MGM classic. The Wizard of Oz turns 80 years old this year! This main stage production is adapted from the full 1939 MGM film, with all the songs and characters loved by audiences for generations. Delight to the popular songs, including "Follow the Yellow Brick Road", "The Merry Old Land of Oz" and, of course, "Somewhere Over the Rainbow".

Director's Note

Youth theatre is awesome.

Some of the children you'll see onstage are participating for their very first time. Their lives have been changed forever by their experience—some have experienced the awe and wonder of playing their part, their eyes opened to the endless possibilities offered by becoming a fantastical character for a time.

Others have experienced sheer terror. And the exhilaration of conquering it.

I love youth theatre because I love pretend. And kids who have permission to pretend with everything they've got tend to "go after it" a bit differently than adults, who after untold years of being told "no" and "knowing better" are often a little less excited, a little more serious, and are a little further from joy than our younger selves. Their translations may not be as pristine—but I daresay they are often more honest. I like to teach students that the moment you cease to be so concerned with what others think of you is the moment you begin to discover yourselves.

I hope you shed the comfort of sensibility and are able to engage your imagination as these young performers have; you might know this story, but you've never seen their efforts in telling this "tale as old as time." The greatest gift you can give them is not only your attention, but your wonder, and awe, and heart.

Thanks for coming.

Message from the Board

Welcome to Lincoln Theatre Company and our youth production of Beauty and the Beast Jr. The Board of Directors sincerely hopes that you enjoy your time here and will plan to return again for our 6th season of live performing arts here in Lincoln. Our organization is working very hard to fulfill our dual mission: To bring high-quality, live performing arts to Lincoln and the surrounding regions, and to continue the renovation of the interior of this historic old building.

We are pleased to announce that Lincoln Theatre Company has purchased and received the ADA lift that we have been waiting for, and now we are moving forward with our plan for improving our stage and its function. This has been in the planning stages for over a year. Funded by grants and donations from businesses, organizations, many personal donations and some ticket sales, we are excited for this project to begin.

We are looking forward to another blockbuster season and hope that you will consider purchasing season tickets this year to ensure those great seats that you have come to enjoy. Tickets will be on sale at the end of August and a notice will go out to all patrons to remind you of this opportunity.

Our Spotlights Guild is always looking for volunteers to help with projects, fundraising and our shows. Please take a moment to consider joining our Guild and becoming a part of our theatre family. Everyone is welcome and we hope you find Lincoln Theatre Company a fun and entertaining place to visit and join us in this journey of live performing arts in Lincoln.

Peggy Schechter, President

Lincoln Theatre Company Board of Directors

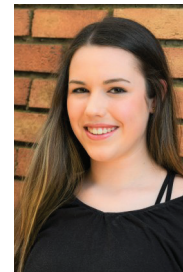

Jackson Fidler (Maurice) is excited to make his performing debut with Lincoln Theatre Company. After many years of watching his siblings perform on stage, Jack decided to join them this summer in LTC's production of Beauty and the Beast Jr. He has thoroughly enjoyed the whole process of creating this production and improving his acting skills. In addition to his new love of acting, Jack is on the golf and cross country teams at Lincoln High School, where he is in the tenth grade.

Mary Fidler (Ensemble) is a fourth grader at Lincoln Crossing Elementary. She is thrilled to be on stage in her fourth Lincoln Theatre Company production. She has enjoyed spending the summer with her older siblings, and is thankful for the opportunity to grow in her performing skills. Outside of theatre, Mary loves doing gymnastics and playing the piano.

Lexie Frick (Ensemble) is going into the 6th grade at Twelve Bridges Middle School. She is thrilled to be back on Lincoln Theatre Company's stage. She was previously seen here as Percy in The Miracle Worker and Carpet in Aladdin, Jr. Most recently Lexie performed as Teen Fiona and Peter Pan in Shrek, Jr. at McLaughlin. Lexie loves performing, reading, and spending time alone. She hopes you enjoy the show.

Aaliyah Hoy (Silly Girl/Featured Dancer) is 13 years-old and entering 8th grade at Western Sierra Collegiate Academy. Beauty and the Beast is her first Lincoln Theatre Company show. Most recently, Aaliyah was cast as a Featured Dancer in her school production of Oklahoma and enjoyed developing choreography for part of the show. Aaliyah has previously appeared with Christian Youth Theatre in productions of Seussical Jr. (Who Citizen), Footloose (Jody), & Tuck Everlasting (Young Mae and Featured Dancer). Aaliyah also studied ballet, jazz, and tap at the Conservatory of Dance where she was cast in productions of Swan Lake and Don Quixote. In her spare time Aaliyah enjoys singing, playing the piano, dancing and choreography, hoping one day to choreograph a musical production.

Kiera Hoy (Featured Dancer/Ensemble) is 12 years-old and entering 7th grade at Western Sierra Collegiate Academy.
